

HARRY NEWMAN JONES

1948 - 1952

A Democrat, Harry Newman Jones was elected state Auditor on November 4, 1947.

Mr. Jones was born in Greensburg, Kentucky, on August 12, 1890. The son of Thomas L. and Sarah S. Saxton Jones, he was educated in Greensburg and at Buchanon College in Campbellsville.

He operated a shoe firm in Lexington beginning in 1937 and was a traveling salesman.

He was elected county judge of McCreary county when he was 23 years of age. He also served as a deputy sheriff in Taylor county. He was defeated for state treasurer in 1951.

Mr. Jones was a member of the Shrine-Masonic order and the Presbyterian Church. He married Gertrude Hundley on February 8, 1924.

He died in Lexington at the age of 68.